*The winner of the City of Victoria Children's Book Prize and the Jean Little First Novel Award for her debut title Elvis, Me, and the Lemonade Stand Summer, has returned with her second middle-grade novel!*

Missing jewellery, a false accusation, and a real thief. Shamus the Urban Rez Dog, P.I. is on the case.

Shamus the Urban Rez Dog, P.I. is an utterly engaging must-read for middle grade readers with well-crafted and vibrant characters who navigate themes of prejudice and micro aggressions ... all narrated by the adventurous and fun-loving Rez Dog, Shamus!

Life is great for Shamus – busting out of the yard, chasing Mr. Tibbles around the neighbourhood, snooping through garbage bins – until Mom is accused of stealing from the family-owned jewelry store she's worked at for years. With Shamus's help, the kids set out to catch the real thief, with surprising and hilarious results, including a false closet wall, a lucky bowling ball, and a vicious poodle named Hepzibah.
